Family Responsibilities towards their children

- Family should be good example for their children by doing right behaviors when dealing with the road and vehicle.
- Teaching children how to cross the road safely.
- Teaching them to walk always on the sidewalk or far left if there is no sidewalk.
- Make them understand the danger of playing in the public streets as it's for vehicles and the necessity of playing in the designated places.
- Teaching children the basic skills to drive bicycles.
- Permanent contribution to increase traffic awareness for children.
- Don't leave children alone during shopping and when they attend occasions and keep them under their sight.
